You need to spend lots of time counting backwards, in ones, from different numbers. Fill in these number tracks by counting backwards. If you find it tricky, use a 100 square to help. However, this means you need more practise with counting backwards so keep practising as much as you can! ☺

							79

							15

							23

							82

							91

							64

							58