WALT: Solve problems with subtraction

There are 45 apples in a tray. 20 of them are eaten. How many are left?

A dog has 78 bones. He buries 50 of them. How many are left?

In the garden there are 57 flowers. I cut some away and have 17 left. How many did I cut away?

Kipper has 61 sweets. He eats ten of them. How many are left?

Biff has 28 friends in his classroom. 20 of them go out to play. How many are left in the classroom?

Miss Apsey thinks 34 - 10 is the same as 10 - 34. Is she right? Why?