Miss Apsey thinks that when you add tens to a number, the ones number will always stay the same. Is she right? You must show 10 sums to prove your answer.

