1. Which of these number sentences is the odd one out?
   Explain your reasoning.

40 ÷ 2	4 × 5	20 × 0	2 × 10

2. Two friends share 12 sweets equally between them. How many do they get each?
   Write this as a division number sentence.

   Make up another sharing story like this one.

3. I have 30p in my pocket in 5p coins. I lose 3 coins. How much money do I have left?

4. Chocolate biscuits come in packs (groups) of 5. Sally wants to buy 20 biscuits in total. How may packs will she need to buy?
Write this as a division number sentence.

Make up another grouping story like this one.

5. Two friends want to buy some marbles and share them out equally between them. They could buy a bag of 13 marbles, a bag of 14 marbles or a bag of 19 marbles. What size bag should they buy so that they can share them equally? Explain your reasoning.

What other numbers of marbles could be shared equally? Explain your reasoning.